Re: Provider Educational Tuition Surety

Herewith kindly be advised that APPETD has served notice with Constantia as the underwriter of the APPETD Surety Scheme, brokered by Marsh Risk Consulting, that is currently the surety policy held by many Providers.

APPETD and Marsh are entering a new agreement with Mutual and Federal Risk Financing as of today and would like to advise all necessary and relevant parties of the change of underwriter. There is absolutely no change to the Surety policy structure, terms, conditions, validity or premium cost and will therefore not inconvenience or prejudice any Provider in any way whatsoever. All enquiries and renewals will still be handled by Marsh and Providers will experience no difference other than to see a different name on their certificates. The reason for the change is to ensure that the Scheme can generate better financial returns, which APPETD will be able to better distribute to contributing members on a greater scale than we previously could. Our intention is, in fact, to make the Scheme more affordable and more rewarding for Providers.

We would like to thank the relevant parties for their continued support of the APPETD Surety Scheme. We trust that this news will be welcomed in the positive light in which the change arose, and we look forward to many more years of Scheme livelihood and longevity.

Should you have any queries in this regard, please feel free to contact the APPETD office at any time or contact me on ceo@appetd.org.za.

Thank you.
